IN BRIEF

Chess club hosting tournament

The Lethbridge Chess Club will hold its first Lethbridge Open Chess Tournament today and Sunday at the Lethbridge Lodge.

Five rounds of 90 minute matches will be played over the two days.

Registration is between 9 and 9:45 a.m. and a free reception will be held after Round 3. Cost is $20 for adults, $15 for senior and juniors and $5 for participating juniors.

Participants must have a valid CFC membership.

Hepher tops local brewers

Local homebrewer Ian Hepher took second and third place with his Scottish heavy ale and stout, respectively, at the fifth annual Werthhops Homebrewing Competition in Lethbridge. His finishes mark the first time anyone has taken two of the top three positions in the event.

Other top local finishers were Lloyd Boehr with a second in the dark lager category, Ron Svrcek with a second in light lagers and John Ferguson with a third in the strong ales.
